LOGAN FARMERS' MARKET SET TO OPEN FOR THE SUMMER/FALL GROWING SEASON

Chapmanville, W.Va. – Fresh, West Virginia-grown produce hits the stands at the opening of the Logan Farmers' Market on Friday, July 15. The market, under new management this season, features farm favorites like corn, squash, peppers, tomatoes, green beans and cucumbers along with value-added products such as honey, maple syrup, jams, jellies and salsa.

West Virginia Commissioner of Agriculture Walt Helmick will kick things off at 10 a.m. on Friday with a short ceremony and free refreshments. "It's the WVDA's mission to help state residents eat local. What better way to do that than to support our farmers' markets where locally-grown meat, vegetables, fruits and other products are on sale."

The West Virginia Department of Agriculture (WVDA), partnering with High Mark Blue Cross/Blue Shield will help source fresh food from around the area and offer it at comparable or lower prices.

You can find the Logan Farmers' Market at 85 Farmers' Market Road in Chapmanville, WV, 25508. Hours run from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Wednesday through Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

If you have any questions, contact WVDA Communications Officer Buddy Davidson at 304-558-3708/304-541-5932 or bdavidson@wvda.us.
