SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION

Please provide a resume, curriculum vitae or other documents that describe the nominees' involvement in the success of West Virginia agriculture, forestry and/ or family life. If such documents are not available, or they do not significantly explain the nature of the outstanding service, provide a narrative description of those contributions. The description should contain the following information regarding the nominees.

1) Service to the industry:

2) Industry related organization(s), organizational leadership roles and dates of involvement:

3) Awards, honors or citations:

4) Community activities:

5) Other accomplishments that would qualify this nominee for enshrinement in the West Virginia Agriculture and Forestry Hall of Fame:

Please be as brief as possible in your descriptions. Applications should not exceed 10 typewritten, double-spaced pages (10-point type or larger). Number of pages is not a criterion for consideration.

In addition, you may attach up to three letters of support if they provide significant information that is not included elsewhere in the supporting documentation.

Applications that contain more than ten pages, more than three letters of support or are otherwise deemed unacceptable will be returned to the nominator for revision if time permits before the deadline.

Otherwise, they will not be considered.

The nominee must have lived in West Virginia (or the territory that predated statehood), and must have demonstrated leadership in regional, state, national and/or international matters pertaining to the success of agriculture, forestry and/or family life to be eligible for enshrinement in the West Virginia Agriculture and Forestry Hall of Fame.

The Recognition Committee considers only the information provided in this application and its supporting documentation.
