

WEST VIRGINIA

2023

AGRICULTURE & FORESTRY HALL OF FAME

JEWELL PLUMLEY, DVM (HARDY COUNTY, WV)

Plumley has spent nearly her entire career advancing the field of veterinary medicine in West Virginia. She is the first woman to be appointed State Veterinarian and Director of WVDA's Animal Health Division and one of only six women veterinarians overseeing a state Animal Health department in the country. She has been active in 4-H and FFA, mentoring and instructing our youth. She is a 4-H All-Star, a recipient of the 2018 Women in Ag Award, and the USDA Excellence Award for her response to Avian Influenza.
