A DIRECTORY TO LOCAL FOODS

Issue Date: 4/17/2020

NOTE: Please be advised that given the fluidity of the current situation, this and further guidance is subject to change and be amended at any time. Readers are advised to check WVDA resources frequently for updated guidance issuance.

Below is a list of the products and foods West Virginia producers have stated are available for purchase by the public. This directory is free to anyone who wishes to acquire local foods during the COVID-19 pandemic. The information is to be used only as a guide for connecting parties, as well as an effort to support the movement of local foods.
