

Hands-on training at the WVU Parkersburg Riverhawk Farm

Sustainable Farming 90-Hour Program

Topics of this course include:

- Introduction to Sustainable Agriculture & Ranching
- Soil Sampling & Preparation
- Planting Methods
- Post-Harvest Handling & Food Safety
- Pest Control
- Beekeeping
- Alternative Energy
- Equipment Safety
- Irrigation
- Construction Techniques
- Identifying Your Farm's Market
- Set Your Farm Apart
- Networking & Joining Farmers' Associations
- Marketing & Budgeting
- Evaluation of Success
- Farm to Table

Program Requirements:

To be successful, students must have physical attendance in each face-to-face class period.

April 19 – August 26, 2021

Virtual Monday Classes &
Tuesday/Thursday Evening Labs

Sustainable Farming offers a Learn and Earn program to partner students with local businesses for a paid internship and possible extended employment.

The cost for this course is $2,000 per person.

Financial assistance available to WV residents who qualify.

Call 304.982.9043 or email
Amy.Wilson@wvup.edu to learn more and register!

West Virginia University at Parkersburg is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action Institution.

W Parkersburg
West Virginia University®
WORKFORCE AND
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT