CIVIL RIGHTS TRAINING

Training is required so that people involved in all levels of administration of programs that receive Federal financial assistance understand civil rights related laws, regulations, procedures, and directives. Persons responsible for reviewing CR compliance must receive training to assist them in performing their review responsibilities. This training may be carried out as part of ongoing technical assistance.

The FNS Regional OCR and State agencies will be responsible for training State agency staffs. State agencies are responsible for training local agencies. Local agencies are responsible for training their subrecipients, including “frontline staff.” “Frontline staff” who interact with program applicants or participants, and those persons who supervise “frontline staff,” must be provided civil rights training on an annual basis. Specific subject matter must include, but not be limited to:

- Collection and use of data,
- Effective public notification systems,
- Complaint procedures,
- Compliance review techniques,
- Resolution of noncompliance,
- Requirements for reasonable accommodation of persons with disabilities,
- Requirements for language assistance,
- Conflict resolution, and
- Customer service.

Non-Discrimination Statement

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

Limited English Proficiency Plans

- Individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English.
- Organizations that receive federal assistance have an obligation to reduce language barriers that can preclude meaningful access by LEP persons to important benefits, rights, programs and services.
- An LEP Plan is a strategy for organizations to identify LEP persons who need language assistance, ways the assistance will be provided, train staff, provide notice and monitor and update their plans.

If you do not understand the training materials in English or English is not your primary language, you can contact the WV Department of Agriculture and the information will be provided to you in your primary language.
Disability Discrimination

- A person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such as impairment, or is regarded as having such impairment.
- Major life activity means functions such as caring for one’s self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.
- Sections 504 and 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973
  - Prohibit discrimination based on disability in programs or activities receiving Federal financial assistance.
- Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), 28 CFR Part 35, Title II, Subtitle A
  - Prohibits discrimination on the basis of disability in all services, programs and activities provided to the public by State and local governments.
- These Civil Rights laws protect persons with disabilities who apply for or participate in all FNS – funded programs.
Complaints

- Customer Service Complaint – There has been a breakdown in service, and can result from a lack of customer focus, being insensitive, demonstrating a lack of understanding.
- Civil Rights Complaint/Discrimination – Are characterized by the complainant verbalizing or submitting in writing that they feel they have been treated unfairly or discriminated against due to a protected class barrier.
Types of Discrimination

- Charging a person using a voucher more for produce than someone paying with cash.
- Refusing service to someone who is in the “protected” class.
- Refusing service to someone who is using a voucher.

Retaliation

- Retaliation means negative treatment of someone because they filed a complaint or complained about discrimination or testified as a witness in a complaint investigation.
- Retaliation could involve denial of service, harassment, intimidation, etc.
- Retaliatory behavior can result in a finding of discriminatory retaliation even if the original complaint filed by the individual is baseless.
Conflict Resolution

➢ Be patient, be polite, and breathe
➢ Avoid sarcasm
➢ Be empathetic. Understand that people may not know the rules or understand how programs work. Even though they receive a list of acceptable produce, they may not actually read what is on it. They may try to buy something not on the list, just explain that you cannot take vouchers for that item but they can pay cash if they want to purchase it.
➢ Smile when appropriate – help people to feel welcome and valued
➢ Explain policy and let them know that you will get in trouble if you do anything that violates the rules.
➢ Don’t be afraid to apologize
➢ Don’t feel you need to have the last word

Points to Ponder

- Am I treating this person in the same manner that I treat all others?
- Have I told this person exactly why I cannot sell them something not on the list of accepted produce?
- Have I told this person that I cannot give them back change and explain they can get more produce?

Educate your Staff and Volunteers

- Hold an Annual Civil Rights Training to make sure all staff and volunteers you have working for you are aware of the Civil Rights of the customer and themselves
- Make staff and volunteers aware of how to respond to a customer who wishes to file a complaint
